PLACE SIGNATURE

Place Signature

convergent place signature

Several parts of the relocated chart point toward the same chart function here. When an angle contact and a house shift repeat the same body, the place is not merely adding one note; it is making that function easier to recognize from more than one direction. This is strong symbolic evidence for emphasis, not a guarantee of outcome.

EVIDENCE SUMMARY
Evidence Summary
TIER	EVIDENCE	SOURCE	BLOCK
primary_evidence	angle contact angle_contact:Mercury:Ascendant	Mercury near Ascendant (tight, orb 0.2994)	With Mercury tightly on the relocated Ascendant, this place wakes up the nervous system through language, movement, and exchange. You may enter life there by asking, explaining, connecting, learning, commuting, writing, or mediating between people. The gift is sharper immediacy: you can name what is happening faster. The caution is scattering yourself across too many conversations or mistaking constant interpretation for actual participation.
primary_evidence	angle contact angle_contact:North_Node:Midheaven	North_Node near Midheaven (tight, orb 1.1905)	With an uncovered body tightly on the relocated Midheaven, this place brings that specialized symbolism close to public role, visibility, and contribution. Because the body is not one of the core planets, describe the contact through the evidence actually present rather than inventing a natal-condition qualifier. The signal can be important when repeated elsewhere, but it should not be used to promise reputation, success, or a fixed vocational outcome.

primary_evidence	angle contact <code>angle_contact:South_Node:Imum_Coeli</code>	South_Node near Imum_Coeli (tight, orb 1.1905)	With an uncovered body tightly on the relocated Imum Coeli, this place brings that specialized symbolism close to home, roots, privacy, and emotional foundation. Because the body is outside the core planet modifier system, describe the contact without inventing a condition qualifier. It can be a lead private-life signal when repeated elsewhere, but it should not be used to promise belonging, family repair, safety, or rootedness.
primary_evidence	angle contact <code>angle_contact:Themis:Descendant</code>	Themis near Descendant (tight, orb 0.3669)	With an uncovered body tightly on the relocated Descendant, this place brings that specialized symbolism close to partnership, encounter, and projection. Because the body is outside the core primary_evidence	angle contact angle_contact:Urania:Midheaven	Urania near Midheaven (tight, orb 1.5267)	With an uncovered body tightly on the relocated Midheaven, this place brings that specialized symbolism close to public role, visibility, and contribution. Because the body is not one of the core planets, describe the contact through the evidence actually present rather than inventing a natal-condition qualifier. The signal can be important when repeated elsewhere, but it should not be used to promise reputation, success, or a fixed vocational outcome.

primary_evidence	angle contact angle_contact:Hekate:Descendant	Hekate near Descendant (moderate, orb 4.313)	An uncovered body moderately contacting the relocated Descendant makes its symbolism noticeable through other people. Read it as a supporting relational signal, especially when the purpose lens or another evidence layer repeats primary_evidence	angle contact angle_contact:Lilith_Asteroid:Imum_Coeli	Lilith_Asteroid near Imum_Coeli (tight, orb 1.6906)	With an uncovered body tightly on the relocated Imum Coeli, this place brings that specialized symbolism close to home, roots, privacy, and emotional foundation. Because the body is outside the core planet modifier system, describe the contact without inventing a condition qualifier. It can be a lead private-life signal when repeated elsewhere, but it should not be used to promise belonging, family repair, safety, or rootedness.

Read it as a meaningful supporting signal, especially when the purpose lens or other evidence repeats the same theme. Keep the language specific to the body and bounded to the contact. This is not enough on its own to define the whole career or public story of the place.

primary_evidence	house change house_change:Sun	Sun from house 12 to 1 (newly_angular)	Here, your authorship, vitality, and sense of direction moves into the foreground through presence, embodiment, self-presentation, and immediate direction. If it was not already angular at birth, the place makes it harder to keep this function in the background; if it was, the relocation repeats the emphasis. In this house, vitality is measured by how honestly direction can participate in identity, embodiment, and first response.
primary_evidence	house change house_change:Mercury	Mercury from house 12 to 1 (newly_angular)	Your interpretation, language, planning, and decision-making becomes harder to ignore here, because presence, embodiment, self-presentation, and immediate direction is an angular arena. Read this as foregrounding, then check natal_modifiers to see whether the emphasis is new or repeated. In this house, clarity depends on how accurately you name, negotiate, and revise primary_evidence	house change house_change:Uranus	Uranus from house 9 to 10 (newly_angular)	This location makes your need for freedom, disruption, experimentation, and reform more structurally visible through career, reputation, authority, and public contribution. The point is not automatic success or crisis, but added centrality: this function now sits closer to the room's main door. In this house, freedom is tested through experiments around career, reputation, authority, and public contribution.

primary_evidence	house change house_change:Neptune	Neptune from house 9 to 10 (newly_angular)	Your imagination, longing, permeability, and spiritual sensitivity becomes harder to ignore here, because career, reputation, authority, and public contribution is an angular arena. Read this as foregrounding, then check natal_modifiers to see whether the emphasis is new or repeated. In this house, sensitivity needs clean edges around career, reputation, authority, and public contribution.

primary_evidence	house change house_change:North_Node	North_Node from house 9 to 10 (newly_angular)	Here, the fallback body is placed where the location is easier to feel and notice, through career, reputation, authority, and public contribution. The meaning is increased prominence, not a planet-specific promise.
primary_evidence	house change house_change:South_Node	South_Node from house 3 to 4 (newly_angular)	This location brings the uncovered point into an angular arena through home, roots, privacy, family, and belonging. Keep the interpretation simple: the place gives this point more structural visibility.
primary_evidence	house change house_change:Aphrodite	Aphrodite from house 9 to 10 (newly_angular)	Here, the fallback body is placed where the location is easier to feel and notice, through career, reputation, authority, and public contribution. primary_evidence	house change house_change:Alma	Alma from house 12 to 1 (newly_angular)	Here, this uncovered point becomes more prominent through presence, embodiment, self-presentation, and immediate direction. Read the angularity directly from planet_house_changes and avoid adding any condition qualifier the fallback path does not carry.
primary_evidence	house change house_change:Moirai	Moirai from house 3 to 4 (newly_angular)	This location brings the uncovered point into an angular arena through home, roots, privacy, family, and belonging. Keep the interpretation simple: the place gives this point more structural visibility.

supporting_evidence	house change house_change:Moon	Moon from house 7 to 8 (leaves_angular)	Here, your emotional regulation, need, habit, and belonging moves out of the main structural spotlight and settles into shared resources, intimacy, grief, leverage, and deep change. This is not a loss; it can turn a once-dominant function into a supporting resource, unless an angle contact brings it forward again. In this house, the nervous system learns what safety requires around shared resources, intimacy, grief, and leverage.

supporting_evidence	house change house_change:Venus	Venus from house 11 to 12 (house_changed)	This location changes the room where your values, reciprocity, attraction, and pleasure has to do its work, bringing it into solitude, retreat, hidden patterns, rest, and spiritual repair. The shift is best read as a change of context: the function keeps its nature, but the life field receiving it is different. In this house, value becomes visible through the quality of exchange around solitude, retreat, hidden patterns, rest, and spiritual repair.
supporting_evidence	house change house_change:Mars	Mars from house 10 to 11 (leaves_angular)	This location shifts your action style, assertion, stamina, and desire from foreground pressure into community, friends, audience, networks, and future plans. The function may feel less like the headline of the place and more like the infrastructure underneath it. In this house, action has to choose its battles around friends, networks, audience, community, and future plans.

			confidence, generosity, and sense of scale into work rhythm, health, maintenance, service, and daily craft. The useful question is what becomes possible, inconvenient, or clearer when this function is asked to operate there. In this house, expansion needs discernment around daily work, health, service, and maintenance.
supporting_evidence	house change house_change:Saturn	Saturn from house 10 to 11 (leaves_angular)	The relocation asks your commitments, limits, responsibility, and internal authority to operate from a less central room, specifically community, friends, audience, networks, and future plans. Check angle contacts before calling it muted, because house de-emphasis can be counterbalanced elsewhere. In this house, maturity is built through sustained contact with friends, networks, audience, community, and future plans.

supporting_evidence	house change house_change:Chiron	Chiron from house 4 to 5 (leaves_angular)	This location moves the uncovered point from structural prominence into creativity, pleasure, romance, children, and visible joy. Name the de-emphasis carefully, because quieter placement is still placement.
supporting_evidence	house change house_change:Lilith_BML	Lilith_BML from house 10 to 11 (leaves_angular)	Here, the fallback body operates from a less central room, specifically community, friends, audience, networks, and future plans. Keep the claim bounded and let any separate angle contact speak for itself.
supporting_evidence	house change house_change:Sophia	Sophia from house 7 to 8 (leaves_angular)	The uncovered point is no longer held by an angular house here; it works through shared resources, intimacy, grief, leverage, and deep change instead. Treat this as a change in emphasis rather than a loss of meaning.
supporting_evidence	house change house_change:Chaos	Chaos from house 1 to 2 (leaves_angular)	Here, this uncovered point shifts out of the angular spotlight and settles into money, resources, self-worth, skills, and material stability. This is not disappearance; it is a movement from foreground signal into a more supporting field.

The caution is scattering yourself across too many conversations or mistaking constant interpretation for actual participation.

angle_contact:North_Node:Midheaven

North_Node

Midheaven

With an uncovered body tightly on the relocated Midheaven, this place brings that specialized symbolism close to public role, visibility, and contribution. Because the body is not one of the core planets, describe the contact through the evidence actually present rather than inventing a natal-condition qualifier. The signal can be important when repeated elsewhere, but it should not be used to promise reputation, success, or a fixed vocational outcome.

angle_contact:South_Node:Imum_Coeli

Imum_Coeli

South_Node

With an uncovered body tightly on the relocated Imum Coeli, this place brings that specialized symbolism close to home, roots, privacy, and emotional foundation. Because the body is outside the core planet modifier system, describe the contact without inventing a condition qualifier. It can be a lead private-life signal when repeated elsewhere, but it should not be used to promise belonging, family repair, safety, or rootedness.

angle_contact:Themis:Descendant

Descendant

Themis

With an uncovered body tightly on the relocated Descendant, this place brings that specialized symbolism close to partnership, encounter, and projection. Because the body is outside the core planet modifier system, describe what the contact foregrounds without inventing a condition qualifier. It can be a lead relational signal when repeated elsewhere, but it should not be used to promise a person, bond, conflict, or outcome.

angle_contact:Urania:Midheaven

Midheaven

Urania

With an uncovered body tightly on the relocated Midheaven, this place brings that specialized symbolism close to public role, visibility, and contribution. Because the body is not one of the core planets, describe the contact through the evidence actually present rather than inventing a natal-condition qualifier. The signal can be important when repeated elsewhere, but it should not be used to promise reputation, success, or a fixed vocational outcome.

angle_contact:Hekate:Descendant

Descendant

Hekate

An uncovered body moderately contacting the relocated Descendant makes its symbolism noticeable through other people. Read it as a supporting relational signal, especially when the purpose lens or another evidence layer repeats the same theme. Keep the language specific to the body and to the encounter mechanism. Do not let a moderate fallback contact define the whole partnership story by itself.

Imum_Coeli

Lilith_Asteroid

With an uncovered body tightly on the relocated Imum Coeli, this place brings that specialized symbolism close to home, roots, privacy, and emotional foundation. Because the body is outside the core planet modifier system, describe the contact without inventing a condition qualifier. It can be a lead private-life signal when repeated elsewhere, but it should not be used to promise belonging, family repair, safety, or rootedness.

angle_contact:DNA:Midheaven

Midheaven

DNA

An uncovered body moderately contacting the relocated Midheaven makes its symbolism noticeable in work, visibility, or public accountability. Read it as a meaningful supporting signal, especially when the purpose lens or other evidence repeats the same theme. Keep the language specific to the body and bounded to the contact. This is not enough on its own to define the whole career or public story of the place.

The point is not automatic success or crisis, but added centrality: this function now sits closer to the room's main door. In this house, freedom is tested through experiments around career, reputation, authority, and public contribution.

house_change:Neptune

House 10

Neptune

Your imagination, longing, permeability, and spiritual sensitivity becomes harder to ignore here, because career, reputation, authority, and public contribution is an angular arena. Read this as foregrounding, then check natal_modifiers to see whether the emphasis is new or repeated. In this house, sensitivity needs clean edges around career, reputation, authority, and public contribution.

house_change:Pluto

House 8

Pluto

Here, your relationship with power, exposure, grief, and regeneration moves out of the main structural spotlight and settles into shared resources, intimacy, grief, leverage, and deep change. This is not a loss; it can turn a once-dominant function into a supporting resource, unless an angle contact brings it forward again. In this house, deeper change tends to gather around shared resources, intimacy, grief, and leverage.

house_change:Chiron

House 5

Chiron

This location moves the uncovered point from structural prominence into creativity, pleasure, romance, children, and visible joy. Name the de-emphasis carefully, because quieter placement is still placement.

house_change:North_Node

House 10

North_Node

Here, the fallback body is placed where the location is easier to feel and notice, through career, reputation, authority, and public contribution. The meaning is increased prominence, not a planet-specific promise.

house_change:South_Node

House 4

South_Node

This location brings the uncovered point into an angular arena through home, roots, privacy, family, and belonging. Keep the interpretation simple: the place gives this point more structural visibility.

house_change:Lilith_BML

House 11

Lilith_BML

Here, the fallback body operates from a less central room, specifically community, friends, audience, networks, and future plans. Keep the claim bounded and let any separate angle contact speak for itself.

house_change:Sirene

House 3

Sirene

The uncovered point enters a different arena here, one concerned with communication, learning, siblings, neighbors, and local movement. Let the natal house describe where the pattern began and this relocated house describe where it is being asked to show up.

house_change:Aphrodite

House 10

Aphrodite

Here, the fallback body is placed where the location is easier to feel and notice, through career, reputation, authority, and public contribution. The meaning is increased prominence, not a planet-specific promise.

house_change:Apollo

House 4

Apollo

This location brings the uncovered point into an angular arena through home, roots, privacy, family, and belonging. Keep the interpretation simple: the place gives this point more structural visibility.

house_change:Kassandra

House 5

Kassandra

This location moves the uncovered point from structural prominence into creativity, pleasure, romance, children, and visible joy. Name the de-emphasis carefully, because quieter placement is still placement.

house_change:Karma

House 5

Karma

This location moves the uncovered point from structural prominence into creativity, pleasure, romance, children, and visible joy. Name the de-emphasis carefully, because quieter placement is still placement.

house_change:Destinn

House 3

Destinn

The uncovered point enters a different arena here, one concerned with communication, learning, siblings, neighbors, and local movement. Let the natal house describe where the pattern began and this relocated house describe where it is being asked to show up.

house_change:Mnemosyne

House 9

Mnemosyne

Here, this uncovered point is rerouted toward study, travel, belief, law, teaching, and worldview. Compare the raw natal and relocated houses in planet_house_changes; do not add a body-specific modifier that this fallback path does not carry.

house_change:Atlantis

House 11

Atlantis

Here, the fallback body operates from a less central room, specifically community, friends, audience, networks, and future plans. Keep the claim bounded and let any separate angle contact speak for itself.

house_change:Sophia

House 8

Sophia

The uncovered point is no longer held by an angular house here; it works through shared resources, intimacy, grief, leverage, and deep change instead. Treat this as a change in emphasis rather than a loss of meaning.

house_change:Arachne

House 10

Arachne

Here, the fallback body is placed where the location is easier to feel and notice, through career, reputation, authority, and public contribution. The meaning is increased prominence, not a planet-specific promise.

house_change:Chaos

House 2

Chaos

Here, this uncovered point shifts out of the angular spotlight and settles into money, resources, self-worth, skills, and material stability. This is not disappearance; it is a movement from foreground signal into a more supporting field.

house_change:Hermes

House 11

Hermes

Here, the fallback body operates from a less central room, specifically community, friends, audience, networks, and future plans. Keep the claim bounded and let any separate angle contact speak for itself.

house_change:Themis

House 7

Themis

The uncovered point moves closer to the chart's main hinge here, expressed through partnership, clients, contracts, and direct mirrors. Treat that as foregrounding, but do not invent a natal condition for it.

house_change:Euterpe

House 9

Euterpe

Here, this uncovered point is rerouted toward study, travel, belief, law, teaching, and worldview. Compare the raw natal and relocated houses in planet_house_changes; do not add a body-specific modifier that this fallback path does not carry.

house_change:Urania

House 10

Urania

Here, the fallback body is placed where the location is easier to feel and notice, through career, reputation, authority, and public contribution. The meaning is increased prominence, not a planet-specific promise.

house_change:Polyhymnia

House 5

Polyhymnia

This location moves the uncovered point from structural prominence into creativity, pleasure, romance, children, and visible joy. Name the de-emphasis carefully, because quieter placement is still placement.

house_change:Circe

House 9

Circe

Here, this uncovered point is rerouted toward study, travel, belief, law, teaching, and worldview. Compare the raw natal and relocated houses in planet_house_changes; do not add a body-specific modifier that this fallback path does not carry.

house_change:Isis

House 4

Isis

This location brings the uncovered point into an angular arena through home, roots, privacy, family, and belonging. Keep the interpretation simple: the place gives this point more structural visibility.

house_change:Melete

House 2

Melete

Here, this uncovered point shifts out of the angular spotlight and settles into money, resources, self-worth, skills, and material stability. This is not disappearance; it is a movement from foreground signal into a more supporting field.

house_change:Sappho

House 6

Sappho

The relocation redirects the uncovered point into work rhythm, health, maintenance, service, and daily craft. The useful meaning comes from the house movement itself, not from pretending the point has a full planet profile.

house_change:Terpsichore

House 7

Terpsichore

The uncovered point moves closer to the chart's main hinge here, expressed through partnership, clients, contracts, and direct mirrors. Treat that as foregrounding, but do not invent a natal condition for it.

house_change:Minerva

House 2

Minerva

Here, this uncovered point shifts out of the angular spotlight and settles into money, resources, self-worth, skills, and material stability. This is not disappearance; it is a movement from foreground signal into a more supporting field.

house_change:Hekate

House 7

Hekate

The uncovered point moves closer to the chart's main hinge here, expressed through partnership, clients, contracts, and direct mirrors. Treat that as foregrounding, but do not invent a natal condition for it.

house_change:Medea

House 10

Medea

Here, the fallback body is placed where the location is easier to feel and notice, through career, reputation, authority, and public contribution. The meaning is increased prominence, not a planet-specific promise.

house_change:Aletheia

House 10

Aletheia

Here, the fallback body is placed where the location is easier to feel and notice, through career, reputation, authority, and public contribution. The meaning is increased prominence, not a planet-specific promise.

house_change:Industria

House 10

Industria

Here, the fallback body is placed where the location is easier to feel and notice, through career, reputation, authority, and public contribution. The meaning is increased prominence, not a planet-specific promise.

house_change:Alma

House 1

Alma

Here, this uncovered point becomes more prominent through presence, embodiment, self-presentation, and immediate direction. Read the angularity directly from planet_house_changes and avoid adding any condition qualifier the fallback path does not carry.

house_change:Moirai

House 4

Moirai

This location brings the uncovered point into an angular arena through home, roots, privacy, family, and belonging. Keep the interpretation simple: the place gives this point more structural visibility.

house_change:Lilith_Asteroid

House 4

Lilith_Asteroid

This location brings the uncovered point into an angular arena through home, roots, privacy, family, and belonging. Keep the interpretation simple: the place gives this point more structural visibility.

house_change:Kaali

House 12

Kaali

This location changes the room where the uncovered point expresses itself, bringing it into solitude, retreat, hidden patterns, rest, and spiritual repair. The shift is a change of life arena, not a new myth invented for the body.

house_change:Child

House 2

Child

Here, this uncovered point shifts out of the angular spotlight and settles into money, resources, self-worth, skills, and material stability. This is not disappearance; it is a movement from foreground signal into a more supporting field.

confidence_note:exact_birth_time exact_birth_time

The birth time is treated as exact for this record, so angle- and house-based location evidence can be read at the report's normal confidence level.

coordinate_precision_note:offline_geonamescache offline_geonamescache

The destination was resolved from an offline place-name database. The coordinates should be understood as a city-level location reference, not as an exact street address or measured accuracy band.

unsupported_method:astrocartography

astrocartography

Astrocartography line-distance evidence is not included in this version. This report uses relocated chart evidence for one destination point: recalculated angles, Whole Sign houses, house changes, and angle contacts.

unsupported_method:local_space local_space

Local Space directional evidence is not included in this version. The report does not calculate planetary azimuths or direction lines from the location; it only interprets the relocated chart evidence currently available.

unsupported_method:parans

parans

Parans are not included in this version. The report does not calculate simultaneous rising, setting, or culminating relationships across locations, so no paran-based claims are used.

unsupported_method:relocated_returns relocated_returns

Relocated return charts are not included in this version. Existing return timing can identify when a return occurs, but this report does not cast a separate return chart for the destination.

warning_summary:other_23584doc

1 warning(s)

A technical warning was recorded for this location calculation. Use the warning message itself as the source of truth, and keep any reader-facing explanation limited to what the warning explicitly says.

warning_summary:no_natal_condition_record

37 warning(s)

Some relocation-emphasized bodies do not have natal condition records in the current standard condition layer. Their house changes or angle contacts may still be listed, but the report should not add dignity, sect, or condition claims for those bodies.
